THE ONLY WAY TO REALLY SEE GRAND CANYON IS TO FLY IT.

GRAND CANYON AS THE EAGLE SEES IT.

The traditional Air Grand Canyon eagle-eye flight has made countless memories of the Canyon's great gorge and its spectacular geologic features. Above the Canyon's depths we see the awesome beauty close up while hearing the pilot's narrative explanations. Every major landmark in the Canyon from the buff colored Palisades of the Desert to the somber charcoal tones of the inner gorge comes to our view and our cameras and makes memories for a lifetime.

Flights involve takeoff and departure time, and arrival and landing time. Consequently the longer flights allow a greater percentage of time viewing the Canyon, as well as a depth and variety of Canyon spectacles just not presentable in the shorter flights. They are worth the difference in price. Prices subject to change without notice. Children's fares under age 13.

WHEN YOU CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF GRAND CANYON...

Share the ultimate eagle-eye view of Grand Canyon. All of the traditional "Canyon Tour" is included in this two-part extravaganza. First we'll fly the Eastern and Main gorges of the Canyon, sight upon sight of spectacular beauty. Then we'll include a turn across the vast starkness of Wild Horse Mesa and into the Western Canyon, filled with towering formations. Sharp side canyons nestle a beautiful Indian Village between brightly hued rock walls. Waterfalls tumble into sparkling turquoise pools, and pastel rock formations that resemble the surface of Mars slip beneath our eyes. We'll inspect the rarely seen remote western reaches of the north rim, and twice fly through the heart of the Canyon's main gorge. Its a balanced look not just at the jewel that is Grand Canyon, but also at the mountains, forests, and deserts that are its setting. If your flight is to be truly a "once in a lifetime" experience for your family, then this is the flight for you.
